

Shipping Delivery Policy

Delivery Areas

Serving Toronto and the GTA. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scheduling

Estimated delivery dates are not guaranteed. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

Inspect products upon delivery and report concerns promptly. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Site Access

Customers must ensure safe and reasonable access. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Delays

Delays may occur due to weather, supply chains or other unforeseen events. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Risk

Risk transfers according to the sales agreement and applicable law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Commercial Deliveries

Additional site coordination may be required. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Delivery Areas

Serving Toronto and the GTA. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scheduling

Estimated delivery dates are not guaranteed. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

Inspect products upon delivery and report concerns promptly. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Site Access

Customers must ensure safe and reasonable access. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Delays

Delays may occur due to weather, supply chains or other unforeseen events. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Risk

Risk transfers according to the sales agreement and applicable law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Commercial Deliveries

Additional site coordination may be required. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Delivery Areas

Serving Toronto and the GTA. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scheduling

Estimated delivery dates are not guaranteed. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

Inspect products upon delivery and report concerns promptly. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Site Access

Customers must ensure safe and reasonable access. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Delays

Delays may occur due to weather, supply chains or other unforeseen events. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Risk

Risk transfers according to the sales agreement and applicable law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Commercial Deliveries

Additional site coordination may be required. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Delivery Areas

Serving Toronto and the GTA. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scheduling

Estimated delivery dates are not guaranteed. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

Inspect products upon delivery and report concerns promptly. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Site Access

Customers must ensure safe and reasonable access. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Delays

Delays may occur due to weather, supply chains or other unforeseen events. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Risk

Risk transfers according to the sales agreement and applicable law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Commercial Deliveries

Additional site coordination may be required. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Delivery Areas

Serving Toronto and the GTA. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scheduling

Estimated delivery dates are not guaranteed. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

Inspect products upon delivery and report concerns promptly. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Site Access

Customers must ensure safe and reasonable access. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Delays

Delays may occur due to weather, supply chains or other unforeseen events. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Risk

Risk transfers according to the sales agreement and applicable law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Commercial Deliveries

Additional site coordination may be required. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Delivery Areas

Serving Toronto and the GTA. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scheduling

Estimated delivery dates are not guaranteed. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

Inspect products upon delivery and report concerns promptly. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Site Access

Customers must ensure safe and reasonable access. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Delays

Delays may occur due to weather, supply chains or other unforeseen events. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Risk

Risk transfers according to the sales agreement and applicable law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Commercial Deliveries

Additional site coordination may be required. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Delivery Areas

Serving Toronto and the GTA. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scheduling

Estimated delivery dates are not guaranteed. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

Inspect products upon delivery and report concerns promptly. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Site Access

Customers must ensure safe and reasonable access. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Delays

Delays may occur due to weather, supply chains or other unforeseen events. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Risk

Risk transfers according to the sales agreement and applicable law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Commercial Deliveries

Additional site coordination may be required. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Delivery Areas

Serving Toronto and the GTA. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scheduling

Estimated delivery dates are not guaranteed. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

Inspect products upon delivery and report concerns promptly. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Site Access

Customers must ensure safe and reasonable access. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Delays

Delays may occur due to weather, supply chains or other unforeseen events. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Risk

Risk transfers according to the sales agreement and applicable law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Commercial Deliveries

Additional site coordination may be required. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.