

Cancellation Policy

Purpose

This policy explains how RJ Doors & Windows manages cancellations in a fair and transparent manner. It is intended to complement quotations, contracts and applicable Ontario and Canadian laws. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scope

Applies to residential and commercial customers purchasing products or services from RJ Doors & Windows. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Order Confirmation

Orders become binding once accepted and confirmed. Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Custom Products

Most doors and windows are manufactured to project-specific dimensions and finishes. Custom products generally cannot be cancelled after production begins except where required by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Rescheduling

Customers should provide as much notice as possible. We will make reasonable efforts to accommodate revised installation dates. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Company Cancellations

We may postpone or cancel due to safety concerns, unavailable materials, severe weather, or circumstances beyond reasonable control. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Consumer Rights

Nothing in this policy limits statutory rights under applicable consumer protection legislation in Ontario. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone: +1 437-228-3139 Email: info@rjdoorsandwindows.ca RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Purpose

This policy explains how RJ Doors & Windows manages cancellations in a fair and transparent manner. It is intended to complement quotations, contracts and applicable Ontario and Canadian laws. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scope

Applies to residential and commercial customers purchasing products or services from RJ Doors & Windows. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Order Confirmation

Orders become binding once accepted and confirmed. Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Custom Products

Most doors and windows are manufactured to project-specific dimensions and finishes. Custom products generally cannot be cancelled after production begins except where required by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Rescheduling

Customers should provide as much notice as possible. We will make reasonable efforts to accommodate revised installation dates. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Company Cancellations

We may postpone or cancel due to safety concerns, unavailable materials, severe weather, or circumstances beyond reasonable control. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Consumer Rights

Nothing in this policy limits statutory rights under applicable consumer protection legislation in Ontario. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone: +1 437-228-3139 Email: info@rjdoorsandwindows.ca RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Purpose

This policy explains how RJ Doors & Windows manages cancellations in a fair and transparent manner. It is intended to complement quotations, contracts and applicable Ontario and Canadian laws. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scope

Applies to residential and commercial customers purchasing products or services from RJ Doors & Windows. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Order Confirmation

Orders become binding once accepted and confirmed. Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Custom Products

Most doors and windows are manufactured to project-specific dimensions and finishes. Custom products generally cannot be cancelled after production begins except where required by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Rescheduling

Customers should provide as much notice as possible. We will make reasonable efforts to accommodate revised installation dates. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Company Cancellations

We may postpone or cancel due to safety concerns, unavailable materials, severe weather, or circumstances beyond reasonable control. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Consumer Rights

Nothing in this policy limits statutory rights under applicable consumer protection legislation in Ontario. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone: +1 437-228-3139 Email: info@rjdoorsandwindows.ca RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Purpose

This policy explains how RJ Doors & Windows manages cancellations in a fair and transparent manner. It is intended to complement quotations, contracts and applicable Ontario and Canadian laws. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scope

Applies to residential and commercial customers purchasing products or services from RJ Doors & Windows. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Order Confirmation

Orders become binding once accepted and confirmed. Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Custom Products

Most doors and windows are manufactured to project-specific dimensions and finishes. Custom products generally cannot be cancelled after production begins except where required by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

website where appropriate.

Rescheduling

Customers should provide as much notice as possible. We will make reasonable efforts to accommodate revised installation dates. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Company Cancellations

We may postpone or cancel due to safety concerns, unavailable materials, severe weather, or circumstances beyond reasonable control. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Consumer Rights

Nothing in this policy limits statutory rights under applicable consumer protection legislation in Ontario. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone: +1 437-228-3139 Email: info@rjdoorsandwindows.ca RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Purpose

This policy explains how RJ Doors & Windows manages cancellations in a fair and transparent manner. It is intended to complement quotations, contracts and applicable Ontario and Canadian laws. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scope

Applies to residential and commercial customers purchasing products or services from RJ Doors & Windows. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Order Confirmation

Orders become binding once accepted and confirmed. Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Custom Products

Most doors and windows are manufactured to project-specific dimensions and finishes. Custom products generally cannot be cancelled after production begins except where required by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Rescheduling

Customers should provide as much notice as possible. We will make reasonable efforts to accommodate revised installation dates. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Company Cancellations

We may postpone or cancel due to safety concerns, unavailable materials, severe weather, or circumstances beyond reasonable control. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Consumer Rights

Nothing in this policy limits statutory rights under applicable consumer protection legislation in Ontario. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone: +1 437-228-3139 Email: info@rjdoorsandwindows.ca RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Purpose

This policy explains how RJ Doors & Windows manages cancellations in a fair and transparent manner. It is intended to complement quotations, contracts and applicable Ontario and Canadian laws. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scope

Applies to residential and commercial customers purchasing products or services from RJ Doors & Windows. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Order Confirmation

Orders become binding once accepted and confirmed. Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Custom Products

Most doors and windows are manufactured to project-specific dimensions and finishes. Custom products generally cannot be cancelled after production begins except where required by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Rescheduling

Customers should provide as much notice as possible. We will make reasonable efforts to accommodate revised installation dates. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Company Cancellations

We may postpone or cancel due to safety concerns, unavailable materials, severe weather, or circumstances beyond reasonable control. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Consumer Rights

Nothing in this policy limits statutory rights under applicable consumer protection legislation in Ontario. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone: +1 437-228-3139 Email: info@rjdoorsandwindows.ca RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Purpose

This policy explains how RJ Doors & Windows manages cancellations in a fair and transparent manner. It is intended to complement quotations, contracts and applicable Ontario and Canadian laws. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scope

Applies to residential and commercial customers purchasing products or services from RJ Doors & Windows. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Order Confirmation

Orders become binding once accepted and confirmed. Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Custom Products

Most doors and windows are manufactured to project-specific dimensions and finishes. Custom products generally cannot be cancelled after production begins except where required by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Rescheduling

Customers should provide as much notice as possible. We will make reasonable efforts to accommodate revised installation dates. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Company Cancellations

We may postpone or cancel due to safety concerns, unavailable materials, severe weather, or circumstances beyond reasonable control. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Consumer Rights

Nothing in this policy limits statutory rights under applicable consumer protection legislation in Ontario. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone: +1 437-228-3139 Email: info@rjdoorsandwindows.ca RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Purpose

This policy explains how RJ Doors & Windows manages cancellations in a fair and transparent manner. It is intended to complement quotations, contracts and applicable Ontario and Canadian laws. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Scope

Applies to residential and commercial customers purchasing products or services from RJ Doors & Windows. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Order Confirmation

Orders become binding once accepted and confirmed. Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Custom Products

Most doors and windows are manufactured to project-specific dimensions and finishes. Custom products generally cannot be cancelled after production begins except where required by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Rescheduling

Customers should provide as much notice as possible. We will make reasonable efforts to accommodate revised installation dates. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Company Cancellations

We may postpone or cancel due to safety concerns, unavailable materials, severe weather, or circumstances beyond reasonable control. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Consumer Rights

Nothing in this policy limits statutory rights under applicable consumer protection legislation in Ontario. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone: +1 437-228-3139 Email: info@rjdoorsandwindows.ca RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.