

Payment Terms

Accepted Payments

Credit cards, debit, e-Transfer, EFT and other approved methods. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Deposits

Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Final Payment

Remaining balances are due according to the quotation or contract. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Late Payments

Late accounts may incur charges where permitted by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

NSF

Returned payments may incur administrative fees. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Taxes

Applicable taxes are charged in accordance with Canadian law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Security

Online payments are processed through secure payment providers. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Accepted Payments

Credit cards, debit, e-Transfer, EFT and other approved methods. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Deposits

Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Final Payment

Remaining balances are due according to the quotation or contract. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Late Payments

Late accounts may incur charges where permitted by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

NSF

Returned payments may incur administrative fees. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Taxes

Applicable taxes are charged in accordance with Canadian law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Security

Online payments are processed through secure payment providers. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Accepted Payments

Credit cards, debit, e-Transfer, EFT and other approved methods. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Deposits

Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Final Payment

Remaining balances are due according to the quotation or contract. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Late Payments

Late accounts may incur charges where permitted by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

NSF

Returned payments may incur administrative fees. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Taxes

Applicable taxes are charged in accordance with Canadian law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Security

Online payments are processed through secure payment providers. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Accepted Payments

Credit cards, debit, e-Transfer, EFT and other approved methods. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Deposits

Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Final Payment

Remaining balances are due according to the quotation or contract. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Late Payments

Late accounts may incur charges where permitted by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

NSF

Returned payments may incur administrative fees. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Taxes

Applicable taxes are charged in accordance with Canadian law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Security

Online payments are processed through secure payment providers. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Accepted Payments

Credit cards, debit, e-Transfer, EFT and other approved methods. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Deposits

Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Final Payment

Remaining balances are due according to the quotation or contract. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Late Payments

Late accounts may incur charges where permitted by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

NSF

Returned payments may incur administrative fees. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Taxes

Applicable taxes are charged in accordance with Canadian law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Security

Online payments are processed through secure payment providers. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Accepted Payments

Credit cards, debit, e-Transfer, EFT and other approved methods. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Deposits

Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Final Payment

Remaining balances are due according to the quotation or contract. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Late Payments

Late accounts may incur charges where permitted by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

NSF

Returned payments may incur administrative fees. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Taxes

Applicable taxes are charged in accordance with Canadian law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Security

Online payments are processed through secure payment providers. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Accepted Payments

Credit cards, debit, e-Transfer, EFT and other approved methods. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Deposits

Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Final Payment

Remaining balances are due according to the quotation or contract. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Late Payments

Late accounts may incur charges where permitted by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

NSF

Returned payments may incur administrative fees. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Taxes

Applicable taxes are charged in accordance with Canadian law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Security

Online payments are processed through secure payment providers. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Accepted Payments

Credit cards, debit, e-Transfer, EFT and other approved methods. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Deposits

Deposits may be required before materials are ordered. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Final Payment

Remaining balances are due according to the quotation or contract. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Late Payments

Late accounts may incur charges where permitted by law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

NSF

Returned payments may incur administrative fees. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Taxes

Applicable taxes are charged in accordance with Canadian law. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Security

Online payments are processed through secure payment providers. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.