

Warranty Policy

Purpose

Describes available manufacturer and workmanship warranty support. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Manufacturer Warranty

Coverage varies by manufacturer and product. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Workmanship

Installation concerns should be reported promptly for review. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Exclusions

Normal wear, misuse, unauthorized alterations, accidents and lack of maintenance are generally excluded. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Claims

Provide invoice details, description and photographs. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

We may inspect before determining the appropriate remedy. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Maintenance

Customers should follow recommended care instructions. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Purpose

Describes available manufacturer and workmanship warranty support. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Manufacturer Warranty

Coverage varies by manufacturer and product. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Workmanship

Installation concerns should be reported promptly for review. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Exclusions

Normal wear, misuse, unauthorized alterations, accidents and lack of maintenance are generally excluded. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Claims

Provide invoice details, description and photographs. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

We may inspect before determining the appropriate remedy. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Maintenance

Customers should follow recommended care instructions. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Purpose

Describes available manufacturer and workmanship warranty support. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Manufacturer Warranty

Coverage varies by manufacturer and product. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Workmanship

Installation concerns should be reported promptly for review. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Exclusions

Normal wear, misuse, unauthorized alterations, accidents and lack of maintenance are generally excluded. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Claims

Provide invoice details, description and photographs. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

We may inspect before determining the appropriate remedy. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Maintenance

Customers should follow recommended care instructions. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Purpose

Describes available manufacturer and workmanship warranty support. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Manufacturer Warranty

Coverage varies by manufacturer and product. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Workmanship

Installation concerns should be reported promptly for review. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Exclusions

Normal wear, misuse, unauthorized alterations, accidents and lack of maintenance are generally excluded. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Claims

Provide invoice details, description and photographs. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

We may inspect before determining the appropriate remedy. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Maintenance

Customers should follow recommended care instructions. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Purpose

Describes available manufacturer and workmanship warranty support. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Manufacturer Warranty

Coverage varies by manufacturer and product. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Workmanship

Installation concerns should be reported promptly for review. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Exclusions

Normal wear, misuse, unauthorized alterations, accidents and lack of maintenance are generally excluded. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Claims

Provide invoice details, description and photographs. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

We may inspect before determining the appropriate remedy. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Maintenance

Customers should follow recommended care instructions. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Purpose

Describes available manufacturer and workmanship warranty support. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Manufacturer Warranty

Coverage varies by manufacturer and product. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Workmanship

Installation concerns should be reported promptly for review. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Exclusions

Normal wear, misuse, unauthorized alterations, accidents and lack of maintenance are generally excluded. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Claims

Provide invoice details, description and photographs. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

We may inspect before determining the appropriate remedy. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Maintenance

Customers should follow recommended care instructions. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Purpose

Describes available manufacturer and workmanship warranty support. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Manufacturer Warranty

Coverage varies by manufacturer and product. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Workmanship

Installation concerns should be reported promptly for review. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Exclusions

Normal wear, misuse, unauthorized alterations, accidents and lack of maintenance are generally excluded. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Claims

Provide invoice details, description and photographs. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

We may inspect before determining the appropriate remedy. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Maintenance

Customers should follow recommended care instructions. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Purpose

Describes available manufacturer and workmanship warranty support. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Manufacturer Warranty

Coverage varies by manufacturer and product. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Workmanship

Installation concerns should be reported promptly for review. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Exclusions

Normal wear, misuse, unauthorized alterations, accidents and lack of maintenance are generally excluded. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Claims

Provide invoice details, description and photographs. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Inspection

We may inspect before determining the appropriate remedy. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Maintenance

Customers should follow recommended care instructions. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.

Contact

Phone and email above. RJ Doors & Windows is committed to acting fairly, transparently and in accordance with applicable Ontario and Canadian legal requirements. These policies should be read together with any quotation, work order, invoice, product documentation, manufacturer warranty, and written agreement applicable to the project. Customers are encouraged to contact us with questions before placing an order. We may revise these policies periodically, with updated versions published on our website where appropriate.